How did you hear about College Consulting, Inc.?

Your son or daughter is completing a detailed questionnaire prior to our meeting. Your own responses and insights relating to the questions which follow will help us in our comprehensive efforts. Please add or attach any additional commentary that you think would be helpful.

A. Please comment on your child's relative strengths and weaknesses as a student. Include your perspective on the student's motivation, self-discipline, energy level, organization, independence, creativity, level of confidence, etc. _____

B. How would you describe your child's personality and values? Please comment on leadership ability, maturity, concern for others, social and/or community interests, etc.

C. What is your child's greatest achievement? In what sense is your child special or unique? In what areas do you believe your child excels?

D. Please indicate any family, medical, psychological, or special testing background about which we should be aware in order to effectively counsel you in the college selection process. Are there any adverse conditions your child has had to overcome to achieve the level of competence currently attained?

E. What characteristics are you especially interested in finding in a college or university for your child? You might want to comment on type, size, atmosphere, facilities, location, academic programs, challenge, or competitive level

F. List the names of colleges or universities to which you would encourage your child to apply.

G. If you wish to add anything not covered above, please feel free to elaborate here or to add additional sheets of information.
